P. I. LANCASTER SELLS INTEREST IN WILLITS STORE

Will Be Succeeded by W. A. S. Foster as Manager. To Leave Mendocino County.

P. I. Lancaster, who for nearly 20 years has successfully conducted the thriving business of the Willits Mercantile Co., at Willits, surprised his many friends throughout Mendocino county this week with the announcement that he had sold his interest in that concern, and will leave Mendocino county in order to become associated with John L. McNab in the management of large oil holdings in Texas.

His interest in the Mercantile Company has been bought by Raymond Ritschel and John Keller. W. A. S. Foster will take Mr. Lancaster's place as president and general manager of the company.

It is with genuine regret that his many friends will see Mr. Lancaster leave this county, for the county can ill afford to lose men of his caliber. He started the Willits Mercantile Co. seventeen years ago on a capital of $10,000, and has brought this popular concern to a point where for several years its sales have totalled close to half a million dollars yearly. Aside from his business affairs, Mr. Lancaster has always taken active part in political, social and civic affairs, doing much good for Mendocino county in general and being in no small measure responsible for the splendid growth and great prosperity of our sister city on the north. The county will always feel indebted to him for the splendid publicity he gave northern California during the exposition as chairman of the Sonoma, Mendocino and Humboldt commission.

We sincerely extend to Mr. Lancaster our very best wishes for his continued success.

Mr. Foster, who succeeds Mr. Lancaster as president and general manager of the company, needs no introduction to the citizens of northern California, having been born and raised in San Rafael—almost at our door. He first came to this county with a surveying crew during a preliminary survey for the N. W. P. R. R. Co., which at that time was owned by his father, A. W. Foster. W. A. S. Foster later became associated with the Northwestern Redwood Co., and in time became general manager, which position he now holds. He is president also of the Bank of Willits.

The successors in interest to Mr. Lancaster in the company—John Keller and Raymond Ritschel—will be associated with Mr. Foster in the future management of the business. Mr. Keller, who for a number of years made his home in Ukiah with his people, has many friens here who will be glad to know of his advancement. He has been in the service of the company continuously for 16 years.

Mr. Ritschel, who has had charge of the Toggery department for about ten years, is very popular and commands the confidence of a large circle of friends.

May success attend their efforts.

BUYING GRAPES HERE

Several carloads of grapes have been shipped from this section the past few days to the Santa Rosa Dehydration plant, represented here by G. M. Alexander and Mrs. Viola Legg. The lady has been instrumental in closing several very large deals for her firm, and has proven herself a buyer of splendid initiative.

The Santa Rosa concern has been paying all the way from $60 to $120 a ton for grapes, according to quality, many of their grapes being for eastern shipment.

They maintain an excellent service, furnishing boxmakers at the various stations and the larger ranches, and employing local truck men, car loaders and laborers.

WOODHEAD CASE UNSETTLED

The examination of William Woodhead, of Branscomb, on a charge of insanity, was held in the superior court before Judge Preston and Doctors Rea and Babcock Wednesday. At the conclusion of the hearing the case was taken under advisement. Among those here as witnesses were relatives of the accused man, E. M. Corbett, Valentine and Alice Requa, J. F. and A. J. Hawn, S. Bechtol, Paul Ray, S. E. Purdy, J. M. Branscomb, and others, all prominent residents of Willits and Branscomb.

The Sanfords will retain the home place of about forty acres. The subdivisions will be in strips containing part river bottom, part bench and part hill and timber land.

RIVERSIDE RANCH SOLD

C. P. Smith on Tuesday sold his Riverside ranch of 96 acres to John Guntly, of Potter valley. The new owner of the property will make his home there and carry on a dairy business, for which the place is well adapted on account of the large acreage of alfalfa.

The price is said to have been $25,000.

CAR WRECKED

A car belonging to John Hampton, of Willits, was wrecked on the Talmage road last Saturday while the driver was hitting too fast a clip. The machine went into the ditch alongside the road and struck a tree. One of the occupants, A. T. Starr, of Santa Rosa, was thrown out on his head and was rendered unconscious for several minutes. None of the party received any serious injuries.

Gus West, of Fort Bragg, came over to Ukiah on urgent business Wednesday.

Mrs. S. E. Davis and Mrs. Mal Connor, of Covelo, were among Ukiah visitors the latter part of last week.

Edgar Dutton has purchased the interest of W. A. Maxwell in the Thomas and Maxwell ranch and Mr. and Mrs. Dutton and Mrs. J. J. Thomas will make their home there.

WITNESS ABSORBS EVIDENCE IN COAST BOOZE CASE

Court almost broke up in an uproar last Wednesday during the trial of John Olsen, of Hardy Creek, on a bootlegging charge, when Alfred Clockers, a witness, absorbed the bulk of the evidence while testing the same. District Attorney Lilburn Gibson handed the bottle to Clockers, who sat in the witness chair.

"Smell it," commanded Gibson.

Clockers stared back at him blankly.

"Smell it," repeated Gibson, and again, "smell it."

Whereupon Clockers elevated the bottle and took several big gulps. The evidence was disappearing fast, when Judge Preston shouted, "Hey, stop that, you mustn't drink it." About the same time Gibson separated Clockers from the bottle.

The jury licked their lips furitvely and regarded Clockers with an astonished stare. The smiles were quite audible.

Oleson was accused of two offenses, the first, making a sale of liquor illegally, and the second, having liquor in his possession for the purpose of selling it. On the first count the defendant was acquitted. On the second he was found guilty.

The case was submitted without argument.

Attorney C. M. Mannon, who is representing Oleson, will move for a new trial on the ground that the prosecution did not show that Hardy Creek was outside of an incorporated city or town, and hence in dry territory in this county under the Wylie act. Failing to get a new trial, he will appeal the case.

RANCHER KILLED IN RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

Lawrence Filosi, well known north coast rancher, died Saturday afternoon from a fracture of the base of the skull as the result of a runaway accident.

The accident occurred that forenoon on the Jefferson ranch at Newport, which Filosi had under lease.

Filosi and A. Del Re were riding in a large work wagon. After passing through the ranch gate from the county road, the horses started to run.

Del Re partly jumped and partly fell from the wagon and sustained an injury to his leg. Filosi stayed with the team for a couple of hundred yards, when it is believed that he was thrown from his seat. He struck on his head and never regained consciousness.

Deceased was 37 years old and a native of Austria. He leaves a wife and daughter and two brothers.

PLANS PROGRESSING FOR APPLE FESTIVAL

MENDOCINO, October 5.—All preparations for the Apple Fair are going forward satisfactorily. The race track is in the final stages and nearing completion. The dust is being thoroughly laid and the surface packed with a tractor and a heavy roller.

Rodeo features are being arranged for one or two afternoons.

There are good prospects that a football game will be started on the afternoon of October 29th, probably between the Fort Bragg and the Ukiah high school teams.

GRANDDAUGHTER BORN

A granddaughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Nelson McClure of this city on Sunday, September 23, when Virginia May Styffe put in her appearance at Fresno. The mother, Mrs. E. L. Styffe, was formerly Miss Aimee McClure, one of Ukiah's popular girls. Friends of the family will extend hearty congratulations.

FOURTH DIPHTHERIA CASE

Another little boy died at the orphanage last Monday from diphtheria, making the second case there within the month, and the fourth death in Ukiah from this disease within two months.

AUGUST WEST DEMANDS RETURN OF EVIDENCE

A petition was filed in the superior court yesterday by Attorney Charles Kasch which is aimed to force the return to August West of a gallon of booze seized in a raid on his place in Fort Bragg by officers week before last. The booze is relied on by the prosecution to prove its case against West, therefore before giving it up Hale McCowen Junior, city attorney for Fort Bragg, will fight the petition to a finish.

Kasch in his petition maintains that the booze was seized illegally, as the search warrant issued by City Recorder Chapman, of Fort Bragg, was faulty. Judge Preston has cited the officers to come into court on October 21 and show cause why the booze should not be returned to West.

Recently the appellate court in Los Angeles decided that evidence seized without a search warrant could not be used in prosecuting any criminal case. The question has been appealed to the supreme court and a decision is looked for in the course of a few weeks. If that decision is reversed the officers will be able to hold the booze as evidence. If it is sustained Kasch will win his point and it will be impossible to prosecute West.

Judge Preston will probably defer his judgment until the Los Angeles case is settled.

T. E. Howard came down from Potter valley on business Wednesday. Leon L. Grover was among the well known Potter valleyites in town Wednesday.

The balance on hand in all funds the first of last month was $258,976.39. There was received $178,619.17 and paid out $57,988.61. The balance on hand this month was $379,606.95.

FORT BRAGG CARRIES BONDS FOR $80,000

HORTICULTURAL COMMISSIONER FILES REPORT

Yellow Star Thistle Well Under Control. Praises New Apple in Anderson Valley.

Ukiah, Sept. 30, 1921.

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Mendocino County,
Gentlemen:

I hereby respectfully submit my report as Horticultural Commissioner of Mendocino County for the month of September, 1921, as follows:

Yellow Star Thistle: Control measures are being exercised against this weed pest. The county roads of the second spuervisorial district are practically free. The state highway commission has done good work and the Northwestern Pacific have taken care of their right of way. Farmers are cooperating and a very successful start has been made in control of this weed menace.

Rodent Control: The week of October 9th to October 15th has been set aside for squirrel work in Mendocino county. A strong campaign will be waged in the Redwood valley section. The work will be in charge of Mr. Buhn of the State Department of Agriculture, J. R. Banks, inspector, C. J. Ley, inspector and E. W. Dutton, Horticultural Commissioner.

All farmers are asked to cooperate in this work and do their poisoning as soon as possible. Poisoned barley will be carried by all officers intrusted with the work and sold at the price of 13 cents per lb. Poisoned barley, government formula, may also be obtained of Howland, Redwood valley, Cox Hardware Co., Ukiah, and Willits Mercantile Co., Willits.

Any method of eradication will be satisfactory but poisoned barely is to be preferred at this time of the year. A good distribution of poisoned barley now will give a high percentage of dead squirrels. October poisoning gives perhaps best results in squirrel poisoning in Mendocino county.

Apples: Anderson valley apples are being packed by the Pioneer Fruit Company. Only California fancy grade is being packed. Inspection of these apples is in charge of Mr. Kuappinich, a state department of agriculture inspector. A good pack, excellent inspection, a good product to work with and good prices are the results of the effort of Anderson valley to market her apples as fresh fruit.

The Orange Pippin (so called) does particularly well in Anderson valley. This apple is receiving considerable favorable comment for its general appearance, quality, texture and productiveness. Although a long recognized variety of apple, it is not grown extensively elsewhere.

Large Orange Pippin planting together with Jonathan, King David, Greening and other varieties known to do well in the valley will be made during the coming years. About fifteen carloads of apples will be shipped this year, the balance of the crop will be dried in the valley.

Grapes: Wine grapes are moving fast. Grapes are showing a high sugar content. Inability on the parts of certain shipping companies to secure boxes and cars is causing loss to certain growers through drying and shrinkage of berries.

However if favorable weather continues for ten days the grape crop of Mendocino county will be harvested without serious losses to the growers.

Prunes: This crop is rapidly reaching a well harvested and cured condition and will soon be ready for shipment.

Respectfully submitted,
E. W. DUTTON, Horticultural Commissioner, Mendocino County.

News From the Nation's Capitol

(Special Correspondence)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—After a month's unearned holiday, Congress is again in session with practically all its important work yet to be done, and President Harding, refreshed by new golfing and cruising experiences, has returned from his latest vacation.

The tax revision bill as rewritten by the Senate is just reported in that body and will be the subject of long debate while business feverishly waits. The Republican campaign promise to reduce taxes, therefore, has not been kept, and, according to Senator Smoot (Rep., Utah), an authority on taxation, will not and cannot be kept. The tax bill, in its present shape, is no more satisfactory than it was as it passed the House and is certain of the opposition of some Republican Senators.

By general consent the tariff bill, through which the Republicans were going to restore prosperity at once, must wait perhaps until the very last. According to the newspaper recognized here as President Harding's mouthpiece, many returning Congressmen are of the opinion it ought to be passed up altogether or at least until the disarmament conference is over. This economic monstrosity, known as the Fordney Tariff bill, has been riddled by House and Senate Republicans as well as Democrats until it will no more hold water than a sieve, and yet enough blind partisans were found in the House to pass it. It is not satisfactory to anyone except the profiteering big manufacturers. Bankers and other business men oppose it and the greatest merchant perhaps in the world, the head of Marshall Field & Co., Chicago, has shown that the "American valuation" clause would destroy what little foreign trade there is left in merchandise.

Among the big measures yet to be acted upon is the war loan funding bill introduced by Senator Penrose, which empowers the Secretary of the Treasury to do anything he pleases with the $10,000,000,000 foreign loans and to be the sole judge of the transactions he may enter into in funding the debt. This, as has been pointed out by Senator McKellar (Dem., Tenn.), and Senator Underwood, the Democratic Senate leader, is an unprecedented and unwarranted grant of power which no one man ought to have or ought to be willing to accept. It is the most sinister and dangerous measure ever introduced in any session of Congress and is sure to result in acrimonous debate, but the Republicans are in the arbitrary, stiff-necked mood and ready and willing to employ the steam roller whenever it becomes necessary to override the minority.

The railroad funding bill, the Panama tolls bill and the maternity bill are all measures which await action and are provocative of debate.

The separate peace treaty with Germany, which is sure to create divisions in the votes of both parties, will have precedence probably, and it is predicted that it will be fought as bitterly by the Bitter-enders as was the treaty of Versailles.

In the meantime, six million persons are idle and the American troops are on the Rhine.

It would seem, therefore, that we are yet a long way from normalcy.

No Party Politics in Disarmament

Senator Underwood's appointment as a member of the Disarmament Conference meets with the general approval of the public and of all parties as did the appointment of Secretary of State Hughes as the ranking member of the American delegation.

There is no more sincere friend of the main purpose of the conference and of world peace than the Democratic leader of the Senate, who has the confidence of his party and of the nation. As an expert on taxation, and doubtless the best informed and best equipped member of either House on this subject, he necessarily has a keen realization of the relation between the maintenance of armaments and taxation, and his sound knowledge of national and international conditions together with his natural ability and experience in leadership make him an ideal member of the Disarmament Conference.

The turning down of Senator Borah,, instead of Senator Lodge, for membership on the Conference, is generally deplored aside from the violation of the ethics governing such oppointments. Senator Borah, it is pointed out, as the author of the resolution providing for the Disarmament Conference, was entitled by all rules of courtesy and by precedent to an appointment on the American delegation. In addition to this he has been the foremost advocate of the limitation of armaments and no one questions his sincerity.

Fortunately, the criticism of President Harding's War College speech, which was construed in many quarters as "backing water" on the main proposition, has had the effect of arousing and crystallizing public sentiment to the point of insisting that the main purpose of the Conference—the limitation of armaments—shall not be submerged. The intelligence of this nation and of Europe without regard to party or other creeds has worked persistently for the limitation of armaments ever since the Armistice, not only from the idealistic view of lessening the probability of war but because it was realized that the continued maintenance of huge armaments would bankrupt every nation in the world. There is no party politics in the question of disarmament and so far as the Democrats are concerned there will be no politics in the disarmament conference. The Democrats will work to the limit to make it a success.

With sincere friends of the cause like Senator Underwood and Secretary Hughes as members of the conference, reinforced by an awakened public sentiment, there is assurance that the main purpose of the conference will not be submerged and there is renewed hope for practical results.

Silk Hosiery and Unemployment

Following its announcement that 5,735,000 persons were out of employment and supplying the figures apparently to justify the statement, the Department of Labor is now busy trying to explain that there cannot possibly be that many persons out of work, principally because some persons employed during the war in war work and now without an occupation could not be properly classified as persons subject to employment. Secretary Davis also finds consolation in the statement that there are 12,000,000 who are still at work.

As an evidence that the unemployed are being absorbed by industry, he says:

"But one must have his head very much in the air these days not to notice the growing prevalence of silk hosiery and the use of silks in general."

The fact remains that idle men are offering to sell themselves into employment for board and lodging as slaves were sold on the auction block while others are being chased from the benches in public parks which they had preemptied as beds.

The flippant remark of the Secretary about the prevalence of silk hosiery could not have been inspired by these pathetic scenes.

The business of the Department of abor is to give facts and figures concerning employment and unemployment without exaggeration and certainly not to confuse the public with explanations or even apologies that have no relevancy to actual conditions.

Everyone without regard to party is desirous of releiving deplorable unemployment conditions and the best way to do so is first to know the actual facts and then face them courageously and sensibly.

A Department of Labor that guesses at or juggles statistics relating to labor or attempts to conceal the facts is worse than useless, and is obstructive to proper remedial measures.

Untaxing the Rich; Overtaxing the Poor

When the tax bill passed the House fifty Republicans voted with the Democrats to recommit the blil for rvision. Here are the reasons as given by two western Representatives:

From speech of Representative Schall (Rep., Minn.):

"The test should be, ability to bear the burden. The man who is able should pay. The man who has profited most should hand over in proportion. Spending should not be the basis of the tax. Earnings are the only just basis. The present tax bill is fashioned to lay the heaviest burden on the backs of those least able to bear it. Think of the number of new millionaires, those who stayed at home and profiteered. Think of the profits—50, 100, yea, even 1,000 per cent— made at the cost of our necessity, at the price of our boys' blood and agony, and now, forsooth, the surtax, the excess-profits tax, must be cut down.

"I shall vote to recommit the bill, with instructions to report it back, minus the repeal of surtaxes.

"The tax should be made enforceable. A definite and certain per cent should be laid upon income and excess profits. * * Abolish non-taxable securities. Force the money out of its hiding place. Place the burden of tax where it belongs. This is what should have been done.

"The test of the iniquity of this bill is that the tax on the pay envelope is raised from 26 per cent to over 50 per cent, while the surtax is reduced from 65 per cent to 32 per cent, and the excess-profits tax is abolished altogether. The principle of progressive tax was right, produced goodly revenue, even with the tax dodging. Why yield to political expediency and abolish it? I cannot see wherein any such action is defensible. One more argument has been handed to the Democrats on a silver platter. The level of constructive statesmanship is very low when it passes out a bill like this for the relief of the country."

The Trusts That Profit by the Tax Bill

From peech of Representative Voigt, Rep., Wis.

"It is claimed that this bill will bring about a saving in taxation of seven or eight hundred million dollars, but the question that I am interested in is, whose money is going to be saved?

"The bill, no doubt, will save that amount to the millionaire class and not for the great mass of people. During the past five years the corporations of the United States have made net profits of $47,000,000,000, and after paying all taxes they had left net profits of thirty-eight billions. Four-fifths of this money was made by about 10,000 corporations, although over 30,000 corporations made income-tax returns. About $19,000,000,000 was made by a thousand corporations, in round numbers, such as the Steel Trust, the Powder Trust, the Standard Oil the Bethlehem Steel, the Coal Trust, the Woolen Trust, the Packer Trust, and so forth. The Steel Trust made over five hundred millions in 1918. When we repeal the excess-profits tax we are releiving a small number of monster profiteering corporations making anywhere from 15 to 50 per cent, placing a heavier weight on thousands and thousands of smaller corporations which make only a reasonable profit. This of course violates the first principle of taxation."

The Truth About This Administration

The entire contents of the forthcoming issue of the Searchlight, the independent monthly at Washington, will be devoted to "The Truth About this Administration." It controverts by facts and figures the alleged "savings" of this adminisration and shows that President Harding's predicted "saving" of $350,000,000 on the basis of alleged "saving" in the Shipping Board would develop into a deficit of something like $1,750,000,000.

It also shows that by a "juggling joker" in the second deficiency military appropriations made during this session are to be charged back to the preceding Congress. All other appropriations currently made are to be charged ahead to the next session of Congress after this. From advance sheets it may be predicted that this is the most comprehensive and important revelation yet made of how government is conducted under this administration.

ELECT OFFICERS

At a meeting held at the City Hall Thursday evening, members of the Mendocino County Automobile Trade Association transacted much important business.

Walter W. Biddick, Field Secretary of the California Automobile Trade Association, gave a very interesting talk on "Why Motorists will Patronize Association Members." He clearly outlined the "Square Deal" policy of the association. The following were elected officers for a term of one year: H. E. Dewey, president; A. F. Moulton, vice-president; Chester Cox, treasurer; F. C. Smith, secretary-manager. The meeting was voted a success, and similar meetings will be held on the first and third Mondays hereafter.

Austin Rawles, Max Rawles and A. N. Rawles and wife came over from Boonville on a short business visit the latter part of last week.

UNIQUE GUESSING CONTEST

On the sidewalk in front of his place of business they have placed a rug, over which the people walk.

During the day the rug fills up with dirt and grit and at night it is taken in and cleaned with a Hoover Suction Sweeper.

The dirt which comes out of the rug is placed in a bowl in the window. This is to be repeated each day for 10 days ending October 17, and the person who comes closest to guessing the weight of dirt which will be removed from the rug during that time will receive a valuable prize.

The contest will attract much attention and interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Enright and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson motored to Loomis the latter part of last week. Mrs. Anderson will remain there for several weeks visiting.

NEWS NOTES FROM COVELO

COVELO, September 29.—Varley W. Bundy was killed on the Dos Rios road Setpember 26. He was driving a truck and met an Indian in a wagon. The Indian's team got frightened and backed up, running the rear wheels across the road, and leaving a very narrow space to get by. Bundy attempted to pass, but watched the wagon instead of his own car and got too close to the bank. The bank gave way and the car went over the grade. He was instantly killed it is supposed. The Indian did not go to see. Bundy was dead when first assistance came. Deceased came to Covelo August 1. He drove the freight truck for G. M. Biggar, and was on duty when killed. He served in the army three months during the late war. He held a perfect military record. He was given a military fuaeral by the American Legion. He was a fine built young man with a clean, noble character and had made many friends while here.

The relatives have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

Mrs. Worthington has bought the O'Ferrall and Chelew ranches at Summit valley. Mrs . Fleetwood, Mrs. Worthington's grandmother, at one time owned the Chelew ranch.

Evangelist Eddie Young will hold a series of meetings here at the Baptist Church beginning October 2nd.

Last week while the balers were at work Tod Hurt's stack of hay containing 45 tons was destroyed by fire. No insurance.

Asa Grist and BenHayden left Monday for a hunt in Trinity county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Belotti are rejoicing over the birth of a little daughter, born September 1, at Eureka.

A. P. Redwine seems to have solved the mystery concerning the skeleton which was unearthed while preparations were being made for the cement foundation of the new bank building.

When but a lad his father told him about an Indian being hung for robbing a squatter's cabin built by Den Dorman where Mr. Dorman first lived and used as headquarters by the early settlers.

The cabin stood near where the Owl Theatre now stands and had been robbed several times. The thief, which proved to be an Indian, was finally caught and hung to a rafter on the porch. They most likely buried him near the cabin for fear of the Indians who were very hostile in those days.

COAST NOTES

(Mendocino Beacon)

Church Anniversary

The fiftieth anniversary of the founding the Caspar Baptist Churcn by the late Rev. J. S. Ross aroused unusual interest and the service brought many from neighboring towns, personal friends of the good man whose memory is so revered by the people of this coast for his good works.

Of the pioneer settlers there were present Alexander Jefferson and Edward Freathy, who settled at Caspar in the sixties, and one charter member of the church, Mrs. Duncan McKerricher, now of Fort Bragg. The sons and daughters of the late Rev. Ross and their families were present. Mrs. Elizabeth Ross Miller gave a history of the settlement of the town and the founding of the early church which proved most interesting. There were but four Baptists on the coast at the time of the founding of the church—Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gordon of Caspar, Mrs. Duncan McKerricher of Cleone, and Mrs. W. H. Kelly of Mendocino.

Rev. Ross not only founded the church at Caspar but he was instrumental in organizing churches at Westport, Kibesillah, Fort Bragg and at this place at one time or another he preached at nearly every hamlet on the coast and he was the best known and best loved pastor that ever came to the county.

Grain Crop Short

Tom King, who for the past several years has operated a small thresher with unusual success along the northern coast taking in the territory as far south as this place, was here this week, threshing for A. A. Heeser at this place and for N. W. Kent and Archie Gordon at Little River. He completed the work here and returned Thursday to Fort Bragg, where he has purchased a five-acre tract with dwelling and where he will make his home in the future.

He states that crops averaged not much over one-half of the yield of last year. In the Ten Mile section a last year's yield from two fields on the Bishop ranch of 1800 bushels was reduced to 600 bushels this year.

Geo. Fee and the King Brothers north of Westport had their crops of peas cut down badly by aphis which were very much in evidence this year and caused a big loss. Mr. King threshed oats principally but but also handled considerable wheat, threshing 5 tons at one location.

Banks Merge

The Mendocino Bank of Commerce and the Fort Bragg Commercial Bank will merge today. The local bank will hereafter assume the name of the Mendocino Branch of The Fort Bragg Commercial Bank. The two institutions will be governed by the same set of officers and board of directors, but they will maintain separate office forces as at present. The officers of the combined banks will be Joshua Grindle, chairman of the Board of Directors; H. P. Preston, president; J. S. Ross, vice-president; A. J. Blackledge, cashier; George A. Lammers, manager of the Mendocino Branch Bank. The combined assets of the two institutions will be over one million dollars.

Big Shipments of Huckleberries

The coast stage line sent out a special truck north to Fort Bragg Tuesday with parcel post matter from this place and Albion aggregating 2½ tons. Huckleberries represented close to two tons of the shipment. Berries seem to be going forward in larger quantities than last season, and the price after reaching a level of 10 cents is said to have taken an upward tendency. As pie fruit these berries are hard to excell, and the demand for them increases each year as their good qualities become better known. Restaurants are said to buy large quantities of them.

The funeral of Mrs. Clara Fitch was held Sunday, the 2nd of October, at the M. E. Church, Manchester. The services were conducted by the Rev. J. W. Robinson. Mrs. Fitch was well known all up and down the coast. She will be remembered as Clara Hamilton. She taught in the public school here for a number of years and was beloved by all. In her younger days she was a great church worker and no church social was quite complete unless Clara was there. She was married to Budd D. Fitch and raised a family of four sons and one daughter. The husband and father was killed several years ago by a young team of horses which ran over him. When our country called, two of her boys went away and they never came back. George was killed in action, Ernest died in camp, as so many of our boys did, and the poor mother was left to mourn, two or three years ago. She left the coast and has been living in Willits, where one of her sons lives. She made no complaint but mourned in silence. She has gone to her reward. She was a good mother, a good friend. She leaves two sons, Harry of Willits and Arch, of Manchester, and one daughter, Oleva, and several brothers and one sister, Mrs. Fred Stearns, of Anderson valley and a big circle of friends. She was about 66 years old. The body was laid to rest in Evergreen Cemetery, the funeral being attended by a very big crowd of relatives and friends. The pallbearers were: Frank Fairbanks, George Caughey, W. W. Fairbanks, Cortney Kendall, Charley Crispin and Sam Hunter.

COAST PIONEER CELEBRATES NINETY-EIGHTH BIRTHDAY

FORT BRAGG, October 5.—Mike Donohue, one of the earlist settlers of this coast and a pioneer resident of Greenwood, will celebrate his ninety-eighth birthday this week at the family home at that place.

He is still hale and hearty and his mind is very clear.

Mr. Donohue settled at Greenwood in 1843, and the site of that town was at one time included in his ranch.

In early days the L. E. White Lumber Co. operated a small sawmill on Greenwood Creek. They shipped their product from Kenny's chute at Cuffey's Cove.

Not being able to agree upon a satisfactory price for this service, they later purchased a portion of Mr. Donohue's ranch and established the present shipping point, moved their mill, and laid out the town of Greenwood.

Mr. Donohue has experienced practically no sickness during his long life, which fact is attributed to his robust constitution and simple farm life.

FEEDING YEAST TO HENS FOUND NOT BENEFICIAL

Preliminary tests have been carried on by the Poultry Husbandry Division of the United States Department of Agriculture in the use of yeast as a feed for laying hens, the theory being that this material was extremely high in vitamines and particularly valuable in the dietary of laying hens. In the initial test the yeast was dissolved in warm water, added to the mash, and the mixture allowed to stand for 24 hours until the yeast had thoroughly permeated the feed. While the hens ate this mash farily well, with the result that their egg production was slightly increased for a short period, apparently they soon tired of the mixture and did not consume it with a relish. Subsequently, decreased egg production resulted, and the mortality among the fowls which received the yeast was notieeably higher than in the pens not receiving it.

It is thought that this mortality wos due to changes occuring in the mash which developed while it was being held in a moist condition for the 24-hour period previous to feeding, rather than as a result of the yeast itself. The moist mash was discontinued and the experimental pens were put on a dry mash containing 1 per cent of dried fresh yeast. The condition of the flock improved materially with this change, and the birds soon resumed their normal appearance, with fair egg production.

However, the egg yield was not greater than that from check pens without the yeast. Thereafter, 3 per cent of yeast which was air and sun-dried and fed in a ground condition was used in the mash without any perceptible increase in egg production. These tests in the feeding of yeast were not conducted on a very extensive scale, nor long enough to determine thoroughly its value. The results were not promising and unless some better method of feeding the yeast is found this product is not likely to be of much value for laying hens.

NO REST—NO PEACE

There's no peace and little rest for the one who suffers from a bad back, and distressing urinary disorders. Ukiah people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Be guided by their experience. Ask your neighbor.

Mrs. J. W. Wilson, 208 Scott street, Ukiah, says: "I can certainly praise Doan's Kidney Pills for they cured me of knidney complaint from which I suffered for a long time. I had severe pains through my hips and often at night could get no rest because of the misery I was in. I felt tired all the time and had no energy to do anything. I read the accounts of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box and in a short time I could see a great improvement in my condition. After using four boxes every pain was removed and I felt as strong and well as ever. Doan's cured me after other remedies had failed and I certainly recommend them to anyone suffering as I did." (Statement given March 12, 1910.)

On February 16, 1920, Mrs. Wilson said: "I never miss a chance to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills after what they have done for me and I can't say too much in praise of them."

REDWOOD VALLEY NEWS NOTES

REDWOOD VALLEY, October 5. The road crew under the direction of J. M. Woolley has been cutting down the hill south of Fred Yates. Gravelling will start this week. Supervisor Ford is planning to gravel the entire stretch from the Redwood school house to Yates spring.

The weather has been ideal for grape picking during the last week and picking has proceeded as rapidly as cars could be secured. Many have finished picking and others are well along. The crop is short this year but quality is A1.

F. A. Howland is making rapid progress on the addition he is building to his dwelling house. Mr. Buckholtz has his new house almost completed, too.

Willbourn Bros. are sawing first-class lumber in their new sawmill. They have many orders to fill already. They sawed a portion of the lumber for Howland's new building.

E. J. Aalto and wife are enjoying a few days' auto trip to Petaluma and vicinity.

Tom Pappas is delivering his wood rapidly in his new Ford truck.

Mrs. Mabel Evans has been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Woolley for the past two weeks.

We note Mrs. Lucia Hopkins, the popular principal of the Union school, has a new Chevrolet car.

Albert Sides, the Potter valley well driller, finished a well for Mr. Buckholtz this week and now he is drilling for Charley Roller.

L. Recetti suffered a very unfortunate accident last Monday morning. He with his family were driving up the road on their way to pick grapes. He had a loaded shotgun with him thinking he might see a rabbit to shoot. The wagon jolted suddenly and the mules started up with a jump. In some manner the shotgun was accidentally discharged, the charge entering the left arm and tearing the flesh away. It was necessary to amputate the arm at the elbow. He is in the hospital now and doing as well as could be expected.

Mr. Hadley has taken possession of the Waldteufel place, recently vacated by Mr. Weiner.

CLOVERDALE TO REVIVE CITRUS FAIR ASSOCIATION

That the Cloverdale citrus fairs, which were so long a festival feature of the North of the Bay section, will be revived this coming spring, was presaged by a meeting held at Cloverdale on Thursday evening of last week. A big banquet was held at the Orange City hotel at which Mr. Geraghty, well known booster of Petaluma, was the principal speaker.

It was the unanimous sense of the meeting that the citrus fairs should be revived and a committee was named to take the matter up and carry it out.

The fair will probably be held about February 22.

BAPTIST SERVICES AT POTTER VALLEY

A large delegation of local Baptists motored to Potter valley a week ago last Sunday and held services there in the large tent belonging to Harry Johnston at his place there. A basket lunch was spread under the trees and all present joined in singing "Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow," after which a blessing was said by Rev. Couch. About three o'clock in the afternoon the Potter valley people began arriving until about a hundred were present. All were well pleased with the beautiful message Mr. Couch had for them.

These services will be held in the Grange hall during the winter months. Everbody is invited to come and help us sing the Father's praises the fourth Sunday of every month. X X X

SHIP SOME OF IT HERE

The Mendocino Beacon says:

"The steamer Fort Bragg made her initial trip here this week on a several weeks' charter to carry lumber from this port to San Francisco and San Pedro for the local company. She carries 800,000 feet and will probably sail today or tomorrow for the south. This lumber has not been sold but with other shipments goes to Los Angeles yards for storage. The lumber market is exceptionally slow at the present time and very few orders are coming in. The local company will not undertake to operate more than one side of the mill until the situation improves."

Mrs. A. C. Tarwater, of Boonville, was among the well known Anderson valley people in Ukiah last Saturday.

To Buy More Junk

The mass meeting last Monday evening called to consider the purchase of the old junk belonging to the Ukiah Water and Improvement Co. voted unanimously to buy it at a price of $52,-500. The formality of a bond election will be gone through to make everything legal and the Brush's will be paid $52,500 for a bunch of old junk that cost about $35,000 to put in about thirty years ago. The railroad commission has placed a valuation on the property of about $65,000 so the city is getting the junk at a bargain. Of course, the railroad commission says the plant would really cost over $100,000 to replace at present day prices, and really, dontchewno, the estimated present-day valuation of $65,-000 allows for over $35,000 depreciation, so the city in buying for $52,500 a bunch of junk which cost originally about $35,000 is really saving $12,500.

Figures similar to these were quoted in connection with the gas plant deal and it was slipped over very nicely. Figures can't lie, of course, but in the hands of their friends they can do wonders.

The people persist in carrying out financial deals of this character and then wonder why their taxes are so high. But this is getting on to another subject. To go back to the original,

Hip, hip, hurray for the water bonds! Vote 'em with a vim.

Anybody else got any old junk? Trot it out. Ukiah will buy it and pay the market price, less depreciation, of course.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

On October 1st, the first meeting of the Saturday Afternoon Club was held at the home of Mrs. Dr. Stout, assisted by Mrs. W. D. L. Held and Mrs. Chester Cox. The rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Stout. The club room was one of the chief topics of discussion and will be ready for occupancy by the club on the next meeting day, October 15. The rooms are in the Eversole building and will be rented for private parties and dances. By having these rooms, the club has not given up the idea of a future club house but this is one step toward the goal. Mayor Smith urged all to attend the meeting of the town board on Monday night in regard to the purchase of the water works. The civic committee was asked to co-operate with the community nurse in her school work. Mrs. Waldteufel gave an interesting and beautiful report on the state convention at Yosemite valley. About 400 delegates attended. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

LEGION DANCE TO BE ANOTHER RED LETTER ONE

The dance to be given by the American Legion tomorrow night is to be a repetition of the red letter one given by that organization two weeks ago. Pop McCray's famous orchestra will again furnish the music, which will be worth the price of admission alone. The enclosing of the platform has been completed and the dance will be held rain or shine.

Refreshments are to be served tomorrow night in the hall, consisting of weenies, buns and coffee. The refreshments will be served at 25 cents per person.

FEED REQUIRED TO MAKE BEEF ON CORN-BELT FARMS

Data gathered by the United States Department of Agriculture regarding the daily gain and the amount of feed and pasture consumed by 34,934 steers fattened on Corn-Belt farms during the last two winters, are of value to beef producers as an indication of how much feed is required on the average Corn-Belt farm to produce 100 pounds of gain.

The average weight of all the cattle at the start of the feeding period was 786 pounds, while the final weight was 1,070 pounds, the gain amounting to 284 pounds in a period of 174 days. The average quantity of feed consumed for 100 pounds of gain was 680 pounds of grain, 62 pounds of commercial concentrates, 391 pounds of dry roughage such as hay and corn fodder, 863 pounds of silage, and the equivalent of 20 days of pasturage.

In addition to these cooperative feeding trials with cattlemen in Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, and Missouri, the United States Department of Agriculture is conducting investigations in southwestern Wisconsin to determine the costs and amounts of feed required to fatten cattle on grass, with and without a supplement, and of the feed required to maintain a breeding herd of beef cattle for one year, and to raise calves from weaning time to yearlings.

THE CAT CAME BACK

A cat that was taken to Laughlin by Mr. and Mrs. Lou Charlton about eight months ago, returned home Wednesday morning, having taken all that time to find the way. How the animal lived while on the way, and whither she wandered in her search for her home would make an interesting story if she could tell it.

Once before the same animal was taken away and found her way back in a few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlton say she has won her right to remain and no further attempt will be made to lose her.

A son was born in Ukiah October 1, to Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Frye, of Boonville.
